SOUTH PARK EMPLOYEES GET SMALL RAISE

Laborers Can Now Make $60 a Month Because of the Generosity of Rich Men Who Compose South Park Board—Coppers Get $70.

The "millionaire" South Park board finally loosened up and gave its employes a small wage boost. As a Christmas present the board donated a raise to several hundred workers.

It "came through" after a year of continual hammering in which the South Park Board, most of the members of which are well-to-do, was shown up as the cheapest wage-paying park system in Chicago.

This board is noted for its low salary lists. The members are all prosperous. They are corporation lawyers, stockyards packers and big real estate men. They have been living in luxury and paying some of their policemen as little as $70 a month. This condition is not changed by the raise.

The high-brow bunch, however, did advance salaries some here and there. Although the minimum wage received by new policemen will remain at $70 a month, according to information from the board head-
